

Making All Things
New

by Eric Novak
illustrated by Carolyn Frank

Dedicated to Grandpa John “Thumbs up to God!”

Sometimes it's hard to talk about death because it feels scary. But Jesus is making all things new, and the Holy Spirit comforts us when we're hurting.

You know how in the morning when the sun peeks through the curtains, and mommy or daddy pulls them back to let in the light? That's what death is like.

You see, when Jesus made us, he made our bodies with a part of us that lives forever.
We call that our soul.
